 at a different ARPS to the coronosphere but the coronosphere is supposed to be at a different ARPS to the biofield that"s under it, so it"s a more at a different ARPS and it is therefore not visible to science here, but at a different ARPS. That"s why they can send up satellites and all sorts just a different ARPS. And if you can get your bodies into the right
