 there can be current flows that come back because every time the Prana seed mainly the energy current tubes that come down, and this is the elevator. It be the manifestation current, and then this much going back into spirit, say if carry the EirA current or the base tones so there's these structures that were

 will form a current It'll break down into sparks and will form a spark a spark pulse current that begins what's called the Krystal Spiral. The Krystal Spiral

 Rosetta is the current generator where it continues to do its sparking and at generate enough spark current to trigger these to phase. So, the two Pranas come one forms a current, a tube of current coming out. And it is this a tube of current coming out. And it is this tube of current that this tube of current that we're going to travel down in order to get against the manifestation current coming out So gravity is actually formed by what was was the manifest current say from the pulse before going all the way out, with the manifesting current that is coming out this way and literally creating a type energy, or current If that was a current it would be pushing outward that was a current it would be pushing outward because there is nothing pulling coming out, ManA current coming out, it will interface with that and have some do. So this current here that would be like the optic nerve and all just drew a current out It's as if there is a tube of energy, through the central current, this LaVa current, the Tunnel of LaVa, we're going to current, this LaVa current, the Tunnel of LaVa, we're going to the Tunnel of allows that central current of LaVa's to open from the central point and the

- and the ManA current, which is the manifestation current, gets stepped down to become
 - is the manifestation current, gets stepped down to become a materialization current called Mana.
 - become a materialization current called Mana. So the Mana keeps going out forward, right,

- into an EirA current this is how we used to do (Ash exhales),
